

Existing Home Test

The samples shown were taken from a home built in the 1980's. They were cultured from the same area of the home prior to the installation of the anti-bacterial system and 30 days after the system was activated.

Before system was installed

30 days after system was activated